The police are trying to ascertain if it is true that the conversation had with the Governor with the Coopers, in which he played the part of peace-maker, and to which the Governor refers in his statement was the direct result of the warning he is said to have received from Colonel Cooper's daughter.

Resolutions of Sympathy.
 DEERFIELD, N.Y., November 10.—At its opening session this afternoon, the Central District Convention of the Anti-Saloon League of America adopted resolutions of sympathy and wired them to Mrs. Carmack, widow of former Senator W. E. Carmack, who was shot in a Nashville street fight, national superintendent P. A. Baker also paid a tribute to Mr. Carmack from the platform in recognition of his services in behalf of temperance.

"We never regretted Carmack to do a thing, but he immediately did it and was always glad to do it," said Superintendent Baker. "He was a supreme noble man and was a poor man."

Patterson's Statement.
 MEMPHIS, TENN., November 10.—A Nashville dispatch quotes Governor Patterson with regard to the killing of former Senator Carmack, as follows:

"I deeply deplore the unfortunate tragedy. I saw both young Mr. Cooper and his father in the morning, and nothing occurred to cause me to suppose any altercation would take place with Senator Carmack or any else. Colonel Cooper last night, however, was aggrieved at the use of his name by Senator Carmack, and I learned that he had prepared a note to send Senator Carmack, demanding that in future his name should not be used in editorials, as he was a mere private citizen and should not be subjected to public attack or ridicule."

"I strongly advised against sending the note, as did his son, Robin Cooper, and also Mr. Bradford, believing it might cause a difficulty, and urged him to take no notice of the objectionable editorials. Mr. Cooper, however, assured me that he would not send the note and that there would be nothing more of it."

"Robin Cooper left the Maxwell House with me in the morning and promised to stay with his father, who seemed to be excited, and prevent any possible trouble. I thought the whole matter was ended until my return from the capital in the evening, when I was shocked to learn of what had occurred."

STEAMER LAUNCHED
 George Washington Is Highest Type of Passenger and Freight Steamer.
 STETIN, November 10.—The steamer George Washington, of the North German Lloyd Line, was successfully launched at Stettin, a suburb of this city, today, and christened by Dr. David Jayne Hill, the American Ambassador to Germany. The ship, which was a brief speech before he broke a bottle of champagne over the vessel's bows.

The George Washington is the latest and highest type of passenger and freight-carrying steamship. Every innovation and improvement known to the shipbuilding industry is incorporated in her. Comfort has been given consideration, and the vessel will have a speed of 18 knots. She will make it possible for her to cross the ocean in less than seven days.

The George Washington is 725 feet long, 78 feet wide and 80 feet deep from the swimming deck. She draws 23 feet of water. She has three-class accommodations, including a dining saloon, a stateroom, a new departure in ocean travel. She is fitted with two passenger elevators, extremely comfortable and handsomely fitted and furnished. Practically all the public rooms and staterooms are equipped with large, square windows, including plenty of light and excellent ventilation. The ship has accommodations for 2,941 passengers, and will have a crew of 525 men.

CITY IS TERRORIZED
 People Fear to Give Information Less Venalence to Terror.
 CALCUTTA, November 10.—The city of Calcutta is terrorized by an outbreak of political crime. The city made three days ago on the life of Sir Andrew H. L. Fraser, the lieutenant governor of Bengal, was followed by a murder. A Bengali, detective, who had been active in trailing the revolutionists, was shot down by a party of three men who riddled his body with revolver bullets.

The people fear to give information concerning the criminals. The police are powerless. One of the natives who was found running a hearing house for a man named Gossans last summer was hanged to a tree. Gossans was a native who turned king's evidence against a number of fellow-conspirators, and was killed in a cell of the Alipor jail by two fellow prisoners. All the police reserves that are left have been ordered on duty to prevent sympathetic demonstrations.

THIEVES RUN DOWN
 Believed to Be Agents for Chicago Clearing House.
 NEW YORK, November 10.—Real detective work that reads like romance resulted in the capture of a pair of burglars and a woman, wife of one and sister of the other, and the recovery of a great quantity of loot from a flat in Grafton Street, Brooklyn.

The detectives believe the men are Eastern agents for a gang of organized thieves, who are running a clearing house for stolen goods in Chicago.

The prisoners are Giuseppe Markette, William Peck and his wife, Minnie. An inventory of the articles found in the Grafton Street flat includes all manner of jewelry, watches and articles of clothing made of Persian lambs' wool and other expensive stuffs.

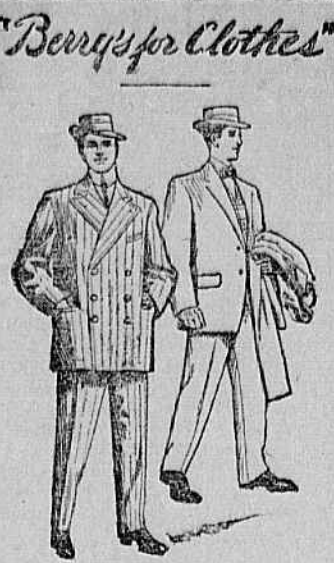

October 20th a safe was blown in the office of Samuel Peck on the third floor of No. 806 Broadway, and property to the value of $3,200 taken from it.

The detectives followed their quarry to Brooklyn, helped out by informers. This morning they arrived in front of No. 7 Grafton Street.

Detectives Kinsler, Flinn and Donahoe were posted outside. Dugan and O'Farrell went quietly to the third floor. There O'Farrell induced the persons inside to open the door by imitating the voice of the janitor.

Peck was in bed. The Markettes, husband and wife, stood silently by in their nightgowns.

As O'Farrell turned his back there was a crash and both he and Dugan were wheeled into Peck's bed empty, and

"Are you hurt?" asked the policeman. "No. If I was hurt, I would say so," growled Peck. "No ambulance for me this time."

The police gathered up what they found and took the three prisoners to headquarters.

"Benny for Clothes"
 noblesman and Miss Elkins, but that the affair had approached the tresspass stage is nowhere admitted. It is further pointed out that if there ever should be a formal announcement it should come, according to court etiquette, in an official statement from Rome.

There are so many considerations entering into a proposed marriage of this sort, aside from the personal wishes of the young people involved, that even Miss Elkins' closest friends here are not discussing the matter with a view to early eventualities, while that young lady herself, a typical and loyal American, is enjoying herself in buoyant spirits, with gallops into the mountains among which she was reared, and indulging her views and her brothers, who are no more enthusiastic than she over the joys of out of doors.

The many unauthorized and speculative stories that have been printed regarding the affair have been very annoying to Senator Elkins, and the members of his family. This was especially true of the report that a marriage had been suggested. It is declared with emphasis that there has never been the slightest intimation of such an arrangement, and none is now being considered for a moment. The senator's closest friends here are confined solely to the duke and Miss Elkins herself. This being the case, it is pointed out that many of the published stories have been entirely erroneous, but unjust to the young couple.

Scholar Elkins has set no definite date for his departure to Washington.

BANKER IS ARRESTED
 Taken Into Custody on His Return From Honduras.

NEW ORLEANS, November 10.—As William A. Adler, formerly president of the defunct State National Bank of New Orleans, walked down the gangplank of the steamer Ellis, which arrived from Honduras yesterday afternoon, many of his old friends threw their arms about him and wished him good-bye.

Adler is return to New Orleans in the face of a Federal indictment charging him with misappropriating $20,000 of the bank's funds. He had no sooner greeted his friends than United States Marshal Lohse arrested him. A carriage had been held in waiting, and he was driven to the United States Court house, where he was committed to the custody of the marshal.

Best Medicine

Says a Doubting Thomas
 "I Am Convinced That Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey Is the Best Medicine I Have Ever Taken. I Say This With Due Deliberation After the Use of Two Bottles."
 Chas. E. Getchell,
 Webb's Mills,
 Maine.

Mr. Getchell, like thousands of others who have been greatly benefited by the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, cannot say too much in praise of this, the world's greatest medicine. On November 18, 1907, Mr. Getchell wrote as follows:

"After due deliberation, having used two bottles of Duffy's Malt Whiskey, I am convinced that it is the best medicine that I have ever taken. At first I was doubtful, but I doubt no more, for I can truly say to you and to the world that its use has improved my health so much I feel like a new man. For the past five years I have been able to work but little, with pains in my kidneys and bladder. I suffered continually, and until I began to take your Malt Whiskey I got no relief; but since then I have been growing better every day. You cannot imagine how happy I am to be able once more to walk three or four miles without any of the old trouble, and I sincerely thank you for calling my attention to your valuable medicine, and be assured I shall always keep it in the house. If any one wishes to write me concerning it I shall be glad to answer."

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain, great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic-stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture, its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

If weak and run down, take a teaspoonful four times a day in half a glass of milk or water.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sold throughout the world by druggists, grocers and dealers, or shipped direct for $1.00 a large bottle.

If in need of advice, write Consulting Physician, Duffy Malt Whiskey Company, Rochester, N. Y., stating your case fully. Our doctors will send you advice free, together with a handsome illustrated medical booklet containing some of the many thousands of gratifying letters received from men and women in all walks of life, both old and young, who have been cured and benefited by the use of the world's greatest medicine.
